

5. What does competition mean in this book?

St. Louis held a design competition in 1947. The winning architect planned to make a big wooden arch.

- A. a plan for how to build something
- B. an event that many people try to win
- C. a large structure made of wood

6. What does symbol mean in this book?

The Arch was built as a symbol of freedom and change. When people visit, they remember key moments in US history.

- A. a place that many people visit
- B. an event that happened long ago
- C. a thing that stands for something else

Answer Key:

1. Answers will vary
2. Answers will vary
3. A
4. B
5. B
6. C